STATOTHR

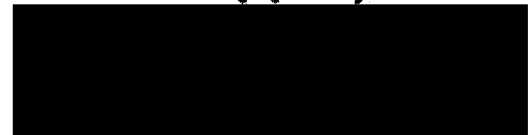

Thank you for your note of June 24th and your letter of June 30th. I was glad to be able to talk with you when you were in town recently and sincerely regret having to report that I have not been able to find a suitable vacancy for you at this time. Budgetary considerations have seriously curtailed our entire recruitment program and there is not much hope for relief from this situation in the near future.

We do appreciate your interest in the Agency as expressed in your letters from time to time and, should any possibilities for your employment here arise in the future, we shall be pleased to contact you to determine your interest at that time. We maintain a file of all promising applicants which is reviewed when and if vacancies occur, so your application will remain active for this purpose unless you notify us to the contrary.

Sincerely yours,

25X1A
